

ALPHA BEAM

Alpha Beam are a cost effective timber effect acoustic baffle. Print endless wood textures to match your interior to create one of a kind acoustic solutions.

Choose from a selection of standard designs and sizes, or create your own by taking advantage of our CNC cutting equipment and UV printing facility. Alpha battens use a built in Tech Rail suspension system that includes a rail and two fixings for a quick and easy installation.

DATA

FIRE SPECIFICATION

EN13501-:2007+A1:2009 B - s1, d0

STANDARD DIMENSION

2400mm x 74mm x 117mm (HUGH)

COMPOSITION

65% Recycled PET Fibre | 35% Virgin Fibre

MATERIAL DENSITY

12mm 2.4KG/M2

ACOUSTIC PERFORMANCE

CLASS A

RECOMMENDED SPACING

We recommend 100mm / 200mm / 300mm spacing between baffles. For acoustic data, please contact sales.

FEATURES

AREA OF APPLICATION: CEILING

- Lengths, width, and height fully customizable
- Class A timber effect battens
- Manufactured from recycled materials
- Available printed and in solid colour
- Available in custom printed textures
- High fire performance perfect for interiors
- Panels can be cut to size to suit your project
- Easy to suspend with built in suspension rail
- Can be affixed using T brackets to create lattices

FINISHES

Alpha Beams are finished with high quality UV printed visuals. Select from our standard range of designs or create your own for a bespoke finish. Alternatively, choose from one of the 20 standard alpha colour options.

INSPIRATION

There are endless designs and concepts that can be manufactured using Alpha Beam. The Acoustics Company have cutting edge manufacturing equipment to make your ideas a reality.

